Force Management

Why an ERB?

- High retention rates, low attrition rates for several reasons (economy, benefits, etc.).

- Changes in the force have required a realignment of work & people.
  - Results in unexpected over- and under-manned ratings.
- Other force management tools, both voluntary (e.g., Enlisted Early Transition Program) and involuntary (e.g., Perform to Serve), were not achieving required end strength.
  - Didn't want to add more pressure to Perform to Serve since it is limited to a small portion of force each year.

Force Management ERB Effects

- Both positive and negative
  - Positive
    - Reduced pressure on Perform to Serve (PTS)
      - In rate approvals from ~2500/month to ~4000/month
      - Involuntary separations from ~750/month to ~400/month
    - Improved advancement opportunities
    - Helped rebalanced ratings (expect to go from 35 overmanned ratings to 11)

	FY10	FY11	FY12 (Post-ERB)
Overmanning	+4,606	+3,692	+1,950
Undermanning	-7,261	-4,764	-4,284

- Negative
  - Unplanned, involuntary separations
  - Will create unplanned vacancies in the fleet when manning is already difficult

Board Conduct

  - Exemptions listed in NAVADMINS (Nuclear NECs, Joint SPECOPS Enablers, SRB eligible, Safe Harbor program, selected by FY-12 MCPO/SCPO/LDO/CWO/CMC/CSC boards, commissioning programs, advanced on SEP 2010 or MAR 2011 exams, etc).

PLAIN TALK FOR SAILORS

Transition Assistance available to the Fleet

Navy leadership is committed to meaningful and effective transition assistance for all Sailors separating from the Navy, whether after four years or thirty years of service. This edition of Plain Talk for Sailors highlights benefits available to all Sailors as part of Navy's comprehensive transition support strategy, and also identifies tailored assistance available to Sailors not selected for retention by the FY 12 Enlisted Retention Board (ERB).

Existing Transition Assistance Benefits for All Sailors

- Navy Fleet and Family Support Centers conduct Transition Assistance Program \(TAP\) workshops and provide assistance with resume writing, financial counseling, relocation counseling, questions about Veteran's benefits, and educational benefits and opportunities.
- The Office of Civilian Human Resources \(OCHR\) provides Sailors and veterans with the information to continue federal service as a government civilian and explains the hiring process.
- The "Shipmates to Workmates" initiative assists Sailors seeking job opportunities for a government civilian career with Navy commands such as NAVSEA, NAVAIR, SPAWAR, NAVFAC, NAVSUP, CNIC and Military Sealift Command (MSC).
- Qualified Sailors can compete for a Selected Reserve quota via Perform to Serve (PTS).
- All Sailors separating involuntarily are eligible for temporary duty for job hunting: Transitional TRICARE coverage for six months and the option to purchase health care coverage through the Continued Health Care Benefit Program; commissary and exchange benefits for two years after separation; and involuntary separation pay.

Tailored Assistance for Sailors separated by the ERB

- All Sailors separated by the ERB are required to attend a Transition Assistance Program (TAP) workshop. (See your CCC to obtain a workshop quota.)
- The Career Transition Office \(CTO\) helps active duty Sailors transition to the Navy Reserve.
- Navy Credentialing Opportunities On-Line \(COOL\) will approve waivers for Sailors with less than one year remaining on active duty to allow time to obtain civilian licenses and certifications aligned with their job or rating prior to their transition.
- Sailors assigned overseas or currently on deployment are provided a minimum of 60 days in the continental United States prior to separation to ease their transition into the civilian sector.
- Routinely check NPC ERB webpages for updates to benefits and services available; download the Transition Handbook; review Transition News and FAQs.

The Navy has contracted with Challenger, Gray and Christmas, Inc. (CGC) to provide personalized career coaching and job search assistance to Sailors being released from active duty by the FY12 ERB. Services begin 3 JAN 2012 and are provided at no cost to the Sailor.

- Contact CGC Coaches via toll free number (800-971-4288) or email (CGCUSNavy@challengergray.com).
- Work with your Coach to establish an account on the CGC website. (You will start at <https://www.icaremanager.com/login/challengerTops/login.aspx>.)
- Services provided include: career assessment, professionally produced resume, job search coach, one-on-one best practice training, customized job search marketing plan, interview practice, networking plan, job leads, corporate connections/career fairs, job bank.
